HISTORICAL PLAQUE TEXT

TITLE:

ALISO VIEJO RANCH

BODY OF TEXT:

The Aliso Viejo Ranch site contains the oldest structures in the City and represents the last physical evidence of the region's late-19th and early 20th century agricultural past. The site is a part of what was once the vast 22,000-acre Moulton Ranch, and the remaining buildings, artifacts, and farming implements highlight the rich ranching history of South Orange County.
