EMS Performance Chief Announcement

Orange County Emergency Medical Services (OCEMS) is pleased to announce that Rey Montoya has accepted the position of EMS Performance Chief. This new administrative manager I position will provide comprehensive administration and oversight of the EMS Emergency Ambulance contracts within exclusive operating areas. As the Performance Chief, Rey will transition into the procurement process and work directly with the EMS Specialists dedicated to performance contract monitoring.

Since 2010, Rey has managed the Health Care Agency (HCA) Custodian of Records Office which is responsible for coordinating all HCA subpoenas, court orders and public access requests for medical and general records. Prior to his HCA tenure, Rey acquired an extensive Fire Service background ranging from Firefighter/Paramedic to the City of Orange, Operations Fire Division Chief. His unique background and expertise is complemented by a Doctorate in Law and Bachelors of Science in Fire Protection Administration and Technology.

Rey is well prepared to provide program leadership and establish positive, effective processes and relationships with city officials. Please join us in welcoming Rey into this new role as the EMS Performance Chief.
