Enjoy the seasonal holiday lights at OC Parks' Heritage Hill Historical Park during four after-hour evenings in December.

Stroll through the park with family and friends and immerse yourself in the holiday décor. The oldest building in the park, Serrano Adobe from 1863, is illuminated with festive cheer. The St. George's Episcopal Mission from 1890 will warm your spirits with its holiday lights. The El Toro Grammar School from 1891 shines bright with merriment. The Harvey Bennett Ranch House from 1908 is decked out with a dazzling light display.

The Holiday Lights at Heritage Hill provides holiday lights only. No entertainment or refreshments are provided.

Inclement weather may cancel the event.

Event and Parking are free.
